

If you see something interesting let me know.
Are you willing to pay me for it?
If so, how much?
You buy it and it is yours to do with it what you will.
Do you want me to give it to you?
If so, why?
If I give it to you and you sell it I will haunt you.
If the buy is agreed to, cash, check, bank transfer, or money order is the method of payment.
No other method is acceptable.
No Paypal, credit cards, nothing else
Checks must clear before shipment or pickup.
You likely will have to pay for shipping, packing etc.

This is not an auction, has no grounding in any known business practice.
If I feel comfortable with what you offer I'll do it.
I don't pretend to be efficient but will try to be honest and fair.
The only way I want to communicate is by e-mail.
Telephones are too dictatorial and I choose to try to be in charge of my life.
No facebook, twitter, or any other "social" read-me-see-me-watch-me either.
US mail is OK while it lasts and you are patient.

To administrators, collectors, people with money, and interested others not familiar with using this stuff.
Be aware that very few of the machines are immediately usable.
Most of them need connections to synchronization signals, signal routing and display.
Some need time base corrected input signals, it's not just plug the camera in.
Audio machines might need amplifiers and speakers at least.
These machines need someone capable of defining and maintaining their purpose.
Repair parts might not be readily available.

Make sure you know what you are getting into, a gentle warning.
